Rules and procedures

- Acts will only be considered if they can audition on the scheduled evenings.
- All acts will be given no longer than 5-minute audition time.
- If you have a more extensive set up contact the Playhouse ahead of the auditions to coordinate set up.
- Since this is a family oriented competition, all acts must do material that is not inappropriate for young children. This will be at the discretion of the Playhouse audition committee.
- From those auditioning, the best acts will be selected from each age group (15 and under and 16 and older) to compete on July 22nd before a live audience for cash prizes. Groups will also need to be available for a technical dress rehearsal on July 21st.
- Acts selected for the live show cannot include individuals that were not a part of their original audition.
- Cash prizes will be awarded by check written to the team leader within one week of the competitions completion
- On July 22nd, celebrity judges will score the first round of performances. From those scores acts will be invited to perform a second different piece for the live audience and the audience will ultimately select the prize winners.
- In case of a tie in the audience voting, the celebrity judges will determine the winners.
- Your act will be placed in the age category of the oldest member of your group.
- Five-dollar audition fee is nonrefundable.

By signing this form, you state that the above information is accurate and complete and agree to the I AM Talented Competition's rules. The Mansfield Playhouse has the right to disqualify any group in violation to these rules.
